ORGANIZED DOPE SYNDICATE HERE— YOUNG GIRLS CLAIMED VICTIMS

Police and City Law Department Begin War on Exclusive Hop Joints—Investigators Claim Joints Exist on Grand Boulevard and Wilson Avenue District—Arrests Made.

Exclusive hop joints in Chicago are under investigation. Following the recent exposure of the drug traffic in The Day Book the police department and the corporation counsel's office began a campaign to rid the city of dope sellers.

The campaign is in the hands of "Doc" Williams, an investigator imported from New York, and Asst Corporation Counsel George L. Reker.

Evidence so far uncovered shows that there is an organized syndicate in Chicago that provide dope to the exclusive joints in high-rent neighborhoods that cater only to wealthy dope fiends.

William Blake, superintendent of the Business Men's Morals Association, is authority for the statement that young society girls are among the best patrons of these joints.

Williams, who has been in town for only a few weeks, has already dug
